Dear Ms Rosita Hickey,

I am writing to thank the European Ombudsman for its positive response to our complaint and willingness to find a constructive solution.

We look forward to hearing the results of your meeting with the representative of the European Commission's Unit for Ethics, Good Administration and Relations with the European Ombudsman.

Our long pursuit of transparency and justice, over the last two years and eight months, was always about reaching a point, in William Shakespeare's poetic phrase, of "all is well that ends well".

We hope the exchange with the European Commission will draw on Dr Michal Krajewski's careful assessment of our case – and all the evidence made available – to generate a positive outcome for all parties involved.

We are open as always to dialogue and collaboration to affirm our shared values of freedom, transparency, justice, accountability and democracy.

Sincerely, Miguel
